

» URBAN WATER II «

7.-9. December 2022

Venues:

- Kunsthalle zu Kiel
Düsternbrooker Weg 1, 24105 Kiel
- Internationales Begegnungszentrum (IBZ),
Kiellinie 5, 24105 Kiel

WEDNESDAY, 7.12.2022

Venue: Kunsthalle (Düsterbrooker Weg 1)

- 18.30 Keynote lecture:
Terje Tvedt (Bergen, Norway)
Urban Water History. Some conceptual and theoretical questions
- 19.30 Get Together in the Antikensammlung, option to visit the exhibition „Zwischen Dionysos und Christus. Bildlichkeit im römischen Nordafrika“

THURSDAY, 8.12.2022

Venue: Internationales Begegnungszentrum (IBZ), Kiellinie 5, 2015 Kiel

- 9.00 - 9.30 Welcome and introduction by
Annette Haug – Ulrich Müller –
Paweł Cembrzyński

Session 1: Water and Leisure: Bathing

Chair: Ulrich Müller

- 9.30 Keynote by session organizers:
Max Grund – Annette Haug – Anna-Lena Krüger – Ulrich Müller (Kiel, Germany)
- 10.15 Monica Trümper (Berlin, Germany),
Bathing practices in public baths of Pompeii (150 BC - AD 79)
- 10.45 Sadi Maréchal (Ghent, Belgium)
Vetustate conlapsas? Continuity of public baths in the late antique urban fabric
- 11.15 Coffee-Break
-
- 11.45 Andrea Schaer (Baden, Switzerland)
Bathing culture in the late Middle Ages and early modern period in the spa of Baden (Switzerland)
- 12.15 Ralf Rossmeissl, Johanna Kemmler (Bad Windsheim, Germany)
Public Bathhouses of the Late Middle Ages in Franconia: Part 1: Usage; Part 2: Technic / Water Supply)

12.45 – 14.15 Lunch Break

Session 2: Water and Cult

Chair: Phillip Kobusch

14.15 Keynote by session organizers:
Phillip Kobusch – Christiane Zimmermann – Javier Gomez-Montero – Florian Weber – Florian Schwake – Sara Mura (Kiel, Germany)

15.00 Maddalena Bassani (Venice, Italy)
Sacred and healing waters in the Roman Empire. Dynamics and changes in devotion and cult spaces

15.30 Florian Steger (Ulm, Germany),
The meaning of water in the context of Asclepius - Cult and Medicine

16.00 Coffee-Break

16.30 Folke Gernert (Trier, Germany)
Water, „our divine drug“. Pompeo della Barba (1521-1582) and the healing effects of thermal springs

17.00 Silvia Gonzalez Soutelo (Madrid, Spain)
Water makes the difference: Some considerations about the mineral-thermal waters and the urban water system

18.00 Dinner

FRIDAY, 9.12.2022

Venue: Internationales Begegnungszentrum (IBZ), Kiellinie 5, 2015 Kiel

Session 3: Water Narratives

Chair: Caecilie Weissert

9.00 Keynote by session organizers:
Annette Haug – Caecilie Weissert – Christiane Zimmermann (Kiel, Germany)

9.45 Dylan Rogers (Tallahassee, USA),
Thoughts on the Materiality of Water in the Roman World

10.15 Coffee-Break

10.45 Nadine Ueberschaer (Tübingen, Germany)
„Living Water“ (John 4:10).
The Water Metaphor in John 4 and its Meaning in the Johannine Writings

11.15 Salvatore Valenti (Venice, Italy)
Engineering the Tiber: water cultures, uses and political conflicts in late nineteenth-century Rome

11.45 Lunch-Break

Session 4 : Water in Urban Social Topographies

Chair: Gerald Schwedler

13.15 Keynote by session organizers:
Patric Kreuz – Margit Dahm –
Catharina Müller-Liedtke –
Gerald Schwedler – Paweł Cembrzyński
(Kiel, Germany)

14.00 Urszula Sowina (Warsaw, Poland)
Water and Sociotopography of Polish
Towns at the turn of the late Middle Ages
and Early Modern Times

14.30 Coffee-Break

15.00 Colin Arnaud (Münster, Germany)
Living near the dirty waters. Social topography of a particular urban population in the late Middle Ages

15:30 David Manolo Sailer (Vienna, Austria),
Unsettled Water. Urban social topographies between flexibility, fluidity, and openness

16:00 Visit to the Schiffahrtmuseum and walk around the town (with Christmas Market)

Contact:

Paweł Cembrzyński: pcembrzynski@roots.uni-kiel.de

Organization Committee:

Annette Haug, Ulrich Müller, Paweł Cembrzyński